

January 15, 2009

Articulation Agreement for Transfer from American River College to Scripps College

Women accepted for admission to Scripps College from American River College will be eligible for junior class standing when they have completed a minimum of 64 transferable semester units. American River College women who have maintained a B average or higher in at least 32 transferable units are encouraged to apply.

Transfer Credit Limitations

1. A maximum of 64 transferable semester units (equivalent to 16 Scripps courses) will be accepted from American River College for transfer to Scripps College.
2. No course graded lower than "C" will be accepted for transfer.
3. Courses passed on a Credit/No Credit basis at American River College will count only as elective credit toward the bachelor's degree requirements and will not meet any General Requirements or major requirements at Scripps College.
4. No grades of transfer courses will be used in computing the cumulative grade point average at Scripps College.
5. Those 300- and 400-level courses at American River College identified in the American River College Catalog as being transferable to the University of California (UC) without limitations and offered in academic disciplines also offered at the undergraduate Claremont Colleges (Claremont McKenna, Harvey Mudd, Pitzer, Pomona and Scripps Colleges) will be accepted as transfer credit.

Transfer credit will not be granted for: Business, except 340 and 345; ; English as a Second Language; Fashion; Geography, except 300/301 and 308/309; Geology 345; Health Education; Horticulture; Human/Career Development; Journalism; Library; Mathematics, except 330, 370, 400-481; Inst

Mandarin 401, 402 combined with Intermediate Chinese at The Claremont Colleges; or Russian 401, 402, 411 (Russian 412 highly recommended); or Spanish 401, 402 and 411 (Spanish 412 highly recommended).

Students electing to begin Japanese or Mandarin may complete two semesters at American River College and complete the language requirement at The Claremont Colleges.

One course from among: Math 320/Philosophy 325; Math 370 (or higher level Calculus course); or Statistics 301.

Mathematics

One Intercollegiate Women's Studies course to be completed at The Claremont Colleges.

Gender and Women's Studies Requirement

One 3-unit transferable course from among the following:
Anthropology 333, American Indians of California; English Literature 333, African-American Dramatic Literature; English Literature 334, Asian American Literature; English Literature 338, Native American Literature; History 320, History of the United States: African-American Emphasis; History 321, History of the United States: African-American Emphasis; History 323, History of the United States: The American Indian Experience; History 325, History of Asian/Pacific Americans; History 327, History of the Chicano/Mexican American; Sociology 325 Chicano Culture.

Race and Ethnic Studies Requirement

Carol Entler, Registrar
Scripps College
registrar@scrippscollege.edu